

Tues. morning

ROSA —

The truck out of Albany broke an axle near Kingston, so tomorrow's delivery is off. Depot says the earliest they can reload & get back on the road is Thursday, maybe Friday if the part doesn't come in.

Please call Mateo about holding the cold storage room past Wed — we'll owe him for two extra days. And let the Perkins order wait, don't promise anyone a date till I hear from the depot.

— Gus

p.s. invoice for the last load is in the top drawer, don't pay it till the shortage is sorted out.
